LA STORIA | THE STORY

Il caffè La Città nasce dal marchio La Messicana, che è apprezzato e gustato in tutto il mondo. Nel 1957 la famiglia Villa residente nella città di Piacenza possedeva una piccola bottega artigianale in Viale Dante con annesso un angolo degustazione di caffè e proprio da qui è nato il marchio La Messicana.

Dopo diversi anni, il negozio è stato rilevato dalla famiglia Degrada che in 10 anni ha trasformato la bottega in una piccola torrefazione e soddisfatto la richiesta della maggior parte dei bar e ristoranti della zona.

Negli anni successivi la società è cresciuta sempre più incrementando le vendite anche nelle province limitrofe a Piacenza come Milano, Lodi, Cremona, Parma e Pavia, nel frattempo l'aroma del caffè conquistava i palati più esigenti.

Dal 1994 Lanfranco Tagliaferri con l'acquisto di nuove attrezzature per la lavorazione e torrefazione del caffè da una svolta decisiva al prestigioso marchio La Messicana, facendo conoscere il marchio oltre che in Italia anche all'estero: Europa, Russia, Cile, Canada, Nord Africa e Asia.

La Città è un caffè di qualità e di fama internazionale e la ricetta rigorosamente "fatta in casa" è in parte ancora segreta. Cosa si può dire per ottenere questo ottimo caffè viene fatta una rigorosa selezione dei tipi di caffè Arabica che proviene dal Sud America e Robusta che si trova in India e Indonesia.
